Dear Hiring Team,

I am writing this letter to recommend Ethan McFadden for the current position you have available.

Ethan is a highly driven and active learner who explores new concepts readily, learning at an incredible pace. He has demonstrated proficiency in HTML, CSS, and Java, and has shown great potential in applying these skills to the gaming industry or other areas of future technologies.

Ethan has consistently demonstrated his ability to work independently and as part of a team. He is an excellent communicator who can articulate complex ideas in a clear and concise manner. He is also highly organized and detail-oriented, which has allowed him to complete projects on time and while overcoming challenges or solving problems as they arise.

I am confident that Ethan would be an asset to any organization that he joins. He is passionate about his work and is always looking for ways to improve his skills. I highly recommend him for any position that he may apply for.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Adkins II
